LABOR FEDERATION.

Half a Million Workingmen Will Be Represented.

TWO DELEGATES FROM ENGLAND.

Important Questions to Come Before the Convention, Among Them the Eight Hour Law—An Effort Will Be Made to Extinguish the K. of L. as a Trades Union Movement—Gompers a Candidate.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—The largest congress of labor leaders ever held in New York as far as the numbers represented and the interests involved are concerned, will begin today at Madison Square garden with the opening of the 15th annual convention of the American Federation of Labor.

More than 500,000 organized workingmen in the United States are sending their delegates, 115 in number, to represent them. Perhaps a million workingmen would be nearer the mark but the officers of the Federation are conservative as to numbers, and only reckon those who are in good standing with the subordinate unions.

It is now 12 years since the federation met in this city in convention, since which time it has been expanding until it has its representatives in every state in the Union, and all over Canada. It has affiliated with it 80 national organizations. There will be one woman delegate, Miss Frances Martell, who will represent the garment workers' union of Chicago. For the last three days the delegates to the convention have been arriving. Ex-President Gompers of the federation and several of the local officers are finding quarters for the delegates at the hotels.

The executive council of the federation, reached this city Saturday and are at the Ashland House. The council consists of John McBride, President of the American Federation of Labor; P. G. McGuire, vice president; John Blenner, treasurer; Augustine McGrath, secretary, and N. M. Garland, president of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers. Ex-President Gompers attended a meeting of the executive council which was held in the afternoon at the Ashland House. The business consisted of preparations for the opening of the convention.

E. Cowey and J. Mawdsley of the coal-miners and spinners' unions of England, who will attend the convention as representatives of those bodies, arrived yesterday. They were met by a delegation of the local officers and escorted to the Ashland House, which will be the headquarters of the executive council. They represent about 300,000 workingmen in England and Wales.

President John McBride of the Federation, is not a delegate, having been defeated at the election for delegates from his local union. He will, however, as president, open the convention. Special arrangements have been made to entertain the visiting delegates. A massmeeting will be held in Cooper Union this evening under the auspices of the trade and labor unions of New York, Brooklyn and Jersey City, in connection with the convention, at which the visiting delegates will be invited to speak.

Important questions will come before the convention, including the carrying out of a general eight-hour movement on May 1, 1896. Questions affecting the standing of subordinate national unions will be discussed and some long standing fights between rival unions will be considered.

The question of harmonizing national bodies will also be considered and efforts will be made to extinguish the Knights of Labor as a trades union movement and compel that body to become a purely educational one.

Ex-President Gompers will be a candidate for president in opposition to President McBride.

An Insane Man's Crime.

DEXTER, Ia., Dec. 9.—Grant Hibbs fatally shot his wife and committed suicide last night. When neighbors entered the house Mrs. Hibbs was holding her husband's head in her lap and a year-old babe on one arm, the baby playing in the blood that flowed from its father's wounds. Hibbs had been released from Mount Pleasant insane asylum as cured five weeks ago.

Looking for the Overdue Vessel.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Dec. 9.—Search for the disabled steamer Strathnavis will be prosecuted by the Oriental steamer Tacoma, which sailed westward from Victoria yesterday. In a few days two or three tugs will be sent out a couple of hundred miles to await her appearance.

Accused of Selling Opium.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Dec. 9.—The grand jury here Saturday afternoon indicted James McCormick, Jr., son of Councilman James McCormick, for conducting an opium "joint." Councilman Elijah Allen was also indicted for conducting a soap factory in the city of Lexington.

Pianos Burned.

CHICAGO, Dec. 9.—Fire last night at 178-180 Wabash avenue, occupied by Meyer and Webber and Joseph Eowman, piano and organ manufacturers, caused damage amounting to $75,000. The fire was caused by electric wires being crossed.

Proud Mare Impaired.

PILOT GROVE, Mo., Dec. 9.—The great brood mare Daisy B., the property of Dr. W. P. Harriman, died yesterday from running a paling into her side.

CRUSHED AND SCALDED.

Terrible Fate of a Crew of Five Railroad Men in New York.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—Three men were killed and two more were injured in a railroad wreck yesterday on the New York and New Haven railway in Harlem. The killed are:

Thomas Fitzgerald, engineer, 35 years old.

Frederick Maples, 40 years old, brakeman.

Thomas C. McNally, 40 years old, brakeman.

The injured are:

Thomas Bannon, conductor, cut and scalded.

Thomas McKeon, fireman, cut and scalded.

All of the killed and injured were residents of this city.

The accident occurred between One Hundred and Thirty-second and One Hundred and Thirty-third street. The engine, No. 16, of the company's equipment, was used as a switching engine and was bound east to Van Nest station with its crew of five men. The location of the accident was at a short curve and no explanation of what was responsible for the trouble could be ascertained. Everything was in its proper shape apparently and the engine and its tender were proceeding along at the usual speed, when, without any warning, the engine left the track and went bumping along over the ties. Bannon, the conductor, and McKeon, the fireman, leaped for their lives at the moment the engine toppled over across the west-bound track before the others of the crew were able to save themselves from being crushed beneath the weight of the boiler.

Police and fire arms were at once turned in. The firemen went to work with their axes and cut away all the wood work of the cab, and in that way were able to take out the bodies of Fitzgerald and Maples, both of whom were pinned down by the cab. The body of McNally, however, was under the boiler and the firemen were not able to release it. A wrecking crew was sent for from the company's yard and the work of lifting up the engine, which lay on its side, was begun. After many hours of labor the engine was jacked up and the body of McNally was taken out. All of the bodies were crushed and scalded, death evidently having been instantaneous. Fitzgerald's head protruded through the window of the engine cab and he was sitting on his seat at his duty when the accident happened.

CONQUEST COMPANY

Accept an Island From Mexico on Condition They Subdue the Natives.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 9.—The Capital publishes a story to the effect that a number of Los Angeles men have received a concession from the Mexican government to the island of Tiburon, in the Gulf of California. The men are John Bradbury, J. Downey Harvey, Peter Martin and Walter S. Moore, all well known men. Tiburon island is inhabited by the Ceris Indians, a warlike race, said to be cannibals, and an expedition is being organized to kill them off and take possession of the island. A company of 500 men is being organized under the command of Colonel L. H. Polk. Each soldier is to receive $250 and 100 acres of land after the island is conquered.

The money for the expedition is being put up by Colonel Bradbury, who inherited a million or so a few years ago. There are only about 100 male Ceris Indians, but they are said to be such valiant fighters that the Mexican government despaired of subduing them and has offered the island to Bradbury and his companions if they would undertake the work. It is the intention of the Tiburon Conquest company, as the new corporation is called, to establish a republic of its own and have the United States establish a protectorate. It is stated that Mexico has consented to this.

One of the objects of the company is to establish a great resort and lines of steamers will be put on from both Yuma and Guaymas. The climate being delightful, the island will soon become one of the noted resorts of the world. It is teeming with game and this will be protected. In fact game and games will be imported there.

THE VIADUCT VERDICT.

Coroner Said to Have Blamed the Dead Conductor for the Cleveland Horror.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 9.—It is said that the coroner has decided upon his verdict in the recent viaduct accident, by which 17 persons lost their lives.

Motorman Rodgers of the car which plunged into the open draw is held blameless, it is said, because he swore positively that he did not see the danger signal or know that the draw-bridge gates were open until the car was almost into the draw. It is said that the coroner also exonerates the bridge captain, holding that the testimony showed the gates were closed and the danger signal lights in place.

This will free the city from blame. It is also said that the verdict will place the blame on the conductor of the car, Edward Hoffman, who met death in the accident, for the testimony showed that the conductor opened the switch and signaled the motorman to come ahead. Therefore, the motorman believed that everything was all right.

A New Spurious V.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—The secret service bureau has discovered a new photographic counterfeit $5 bank note on the Fort Dearborn National bank of Chicago, series of 1882, bank No. 6197, charter No. 3698, portrait of Garfield. The colors are poorer than the genuine.

WORK OF CONGRESS.

Nothing Can Be Done This Week in the House.

NO COMMITTEES APPOINTED.

In the Senate the week will be given up to Caucusing by all parties and no legislation is looked for until after the holidays—Salisbury's note received, but not made public.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—The probabilities are that the week in the senate this week will be given up largely to caucusing by all parties and that the senate daily sessions will be brief with little effort at legislation. The introduction of bills will be continued, though no work of consequence can be done until the committees are filled. There is nothing on the calendar except two speeches, one by Senator Morgan, announced for Monday on the Bering sea question, and one by Senator Cullom on the Monroe doctrine. It is understood that Senator Morgan will pay his respects to Ambassador Pauncefote and Lord Salisbury.

House Program.

The house program this week is a dreary waste. Until the committees are appointed the machinery of the house is blocked and nothing can be done save by unanimous consent. Any resolution that might be presented—and it is in this form that the sensations that agitate the lower branch of congress are usually sprung—would go down before a single objection. For this reason no attempt will be made to do anything until Speaker Reed announces his committees which he now expects to have ready at the end of the week.

There probably will be but three brief sessions this week. When the house meets today an adjournment will be taken until Wednesday or Thursday and from that date until Saturday, when the committees will be announced. The indications are that practically nothing can be done in the way of the consideration of actual legislation until after the holidays. However, the congressional hoppers are filling up preparatory to the grinding that will follow later. Last week several hundred bills were introduced and it is probable that fully as many will be started on their journey to the statute books this week.

As the president is absent on his hunting trip there is no probability that the reply of Lord Salisbury's letter to Secretary Olney's note regarding the Venezuelan boundary dispute, in which congress is so deeply interested, will be sent to the house this week. There may be an attempt through a resolution to procure from Secretary Olney the letter sent by him to the English premier last July and Lord Salisbury's reply received Saturday, but should such an attempt be made it will unquestionably prove abortive.

The adoption of such a resolution would require unanimous consent and there is no doubt that some friend of the administration would object to it as lacking in deference to the president in his absence and the fact that Mr. Cleveland, in his message, advised congress that he would send the reply to congress with a special message will doubtless be cited as an additional reason why it would not be good taste to make a demand on the executive department of the government until it is manifested, at least, a disinclination to send to congress the correspondence.

ENGLAND HAS SPOKEN.

Her Reply on the Venezuelan Affair Delivered to Olney, but Kept Secret.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—The reply of Lord Salisbury to Secretary Olney's note of instructions to Ambassador Bayard, relative to the Venezuelan boundary dispute, was delivered to Secretary Olney at noon Saturday. Donelson, the messenger of the British embassy, came early to the state department in the afternoon with a note from Sir Julian Pauncefote, asking for an appointment to see the secretary. This was arranged speedily for Saturday morning and Sir Julian presented the note in person to the secretary, the ambassador, himself, reading its contents to Mr. Olney as is the custom when important documents are presented.

NO SINCERE HERE.

An Indian Selected to Carry the Mails From Juneau to the Yukon.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Dec. 9.—A concession from the Chinese government to build a line of railroad from tidewater to Pekin has been obtained by a syndicate of American capitalists. The road will be about 200 miles long and will tap a valuable coal mining district. The operation and construction of the road will be under the direct patronage of the Chinese government, but American capital and engineers are the principal factors in the scheme. Among the men of prominence said to be in the deal are Senator Calvin S. Brice of Ohio, Whitelaw Reid, editor of the New York Tribune; ex-Secretary of State John W. Foster, and others.

Made 'Em Lose Money.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 9.—The firm of Longstreth & Schroeder, well known piano dealers of this city, are mourning the strange absence of C. B. Wilson, who was their Urbana agent, and who has been missing for two weeks. The cause of his disappearance is laid at the feet of two or three young women.

GEORGE AUGUSTUS SALA DEAD

The World-Famous Journalist Passes Away in London.

LONDON, Dec. 9.—George Augustus Sala, the distinguished journalist, is dead.

GEORGE AUGUSTUS SALA.

George Augustus Henry Sala, journalist and author, was born in London in 1828. In the early part of his career he became a contributor of articles to news papers and magazines. He founded and was the first editor of The Temple Bar Magazine.

He visited the United States in 1863 as special correspondent for The Daily Telegraph, and in the latter part of the following year published the result of his observations under the title of "America in the Midst of War." He was war correspondent for the same paper in France in 1870, witnessing the fall of the empire in Paris on Sept. 4.

He afterwards went to Rome to report the entry of the Italian army into that city, and in January, 1875, he visited Spain on the occasion of the entry of Alfonso XII. He visited Russia in December, 1876, as special correspondent of The Daily Telegraph, and subsequently traversed the empire to observe the mobilization of the Russian army, then in progress.

RECORD-BREAKING EVENT.

Great Preparations For Governor Bradley's Inauguration Tomorrow.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 9.—Arrangement for the inauguration of Governor-elect Bradley at Frankfort Tuesday are rapidly nearing completion. It is the first opportunity the Republicans of this state ever had for the management of such an affair and the indications are that they intend to do the occasion full justice. The inauguration of a Republican governor in Kentucky is a record-breaking event to start with and the preparations are sufficiently elaborate to be in keeping with the importance of the occasion. The parade will, of course, be the feature of the day.

General D. W. Lindsay has been chosen chief marshal and in the procession will be organizations from Covington, Newport, Cincinnati, Louisville and other cities, including the famous Louisville Legion. The parade will occur shortly before noon and the inauguration ceremonies will follow. Colonel Bradley will reach Frankfort Tuesday morning on a special train and will, it is expected, be greeted by one of the largest crowds ever gathered at the state capital.

RAILROAD IN CHINA

To Be Built by a Syndicate of Americans, Bries, Reid and Foster in It.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Dec. 9.—A concession from the Chinese government to build a line of railroad from tidewater to Pekin has been obtained by a syndicate of American capitalists. The road will be about 200 miles long and will tap a valuable coal mining district. The operation and construction of the road will be under the direct patronage of the Chinese government, but American capital and engineers are the principal factors in the scheme.

Among the men of prominence said to be in the deal are Senator Calvin S. Brice of Ohio, Whitelaw Reid, editor of the New York Tribune; ex-Secretary of State John W. Foster, and others.

Another Accident to the Texas.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—It was reported at Tompkinsville, Staten Island, that the United States battleship Texas, while coming to anchor off that place at 4:15 p. m. Saturday, lost her anchor and a portion of chain attached. The accident was said to have been caused by a pin dropping out of one of the shackles of the chain cable.

Made 'Em Lose Money.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 9.—The firm of Longstreth & Schroeder, well known piano dealers of this city, are mourning the strange absence of C. B. Wilson, who was their Urbana agent, and who has been missing for two weeks. The cause of his disappearance is laid at the feet of two or three young women.

Dined by Elkins.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—Senator Elkins gave a dinner last night to a number of members of the Republican national committee.

ORIENTAL DIPLOMACY

As Practiced by Turkey Remains Unchanged.

NO FIRMAN YET GRANTED.

Whether From Dread of Another Massacre or of a Clash Ensuing Between the Powers Themselves, Is Not Known—The Sultan in Mortal Fear—Details of the Slaughter at Sivas.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 9.—(Copyrighted)—The situation here on the question of the extra guardships of the powers remains unchanged and continues to offer a tribute to the powers of delay and evasion of Oriental diplomacy as practiced by the Turkish government. Statements are constantly reiterated of the continued accord of the powers on the subject and their unwilling determination to insist upon a compliance with their demands. Loss is heard, however, of the rumors which were of frequent occurrence in the early period after the demand had been presented, that the sultan had at length decided to grant the necessary firman to permit the passage of the Dardanelles, or even that he had actually issued them.

Since the return of her majesty's steamship Dryad to Salonica bay, no word has been heard of any actual order or movement to advance upon the Dardanelles. Opinion continues divided as to whether the delay in taking any action to enforce the demands is due to a fear of causing a fanatical outbreak against the Christians by the Mussulmans subjects of the sultan or to a dread of a clash ensuing between the powers themselves.

That the sultan lives in a state of constant apprehension of his life was indicated by his demeanor during the course of the ceremony of the Solamik on Friday, which involves the departure of the sultan from the walls of the palace and his appearance in public for a sort of review of the troops, attended by many high officials, followed by prayers at the Mosque. On Friday, as the sultan was quitting the Mosque,

Partly cloudy and light flurries of snow.

The hordes of hungry Republicans will move on to Frankfort to-day and to-morrow. Every delegation will want to see Boss Bradley in the interest of their favorites.

THE Daily Argonaut, of Lexington, will make its initial appearance early this week. It will be an afternoon paper, one of the liveliest and most interesting youngsters in the business. Success to it.

GOVERNOR BROWN has gone into the wholesale pardon business. Nine Fayette County negroes were recently indicted for running a "wheel of fortune." When their trial was called their attorney produced an unconditional pardon for the entire gang.

This week Treasurer Hale will send out checks to meet the $400,000 due in December on account of the school fund. In January $800,000 more will be paid on the same account. It seems the cry of the Republicans that the State Treasury was "busted" was simply a "campaign lie."

THE Columbus (O.) Press remarks that a few light weights, like driftwood, floated up by the tide of the late election, are now posing as Presidential timber, and adds: "Among the chaffiest of these is Col. W. O. Bradley, of Kentucky, a mere frothy declaimer of the sophomore variety."

HON. A. J. CARROLL won in the special Legislative election at Louisville Saturday, defeating his Republican opponent Blatz by 452 majority. This makes the Legislature a tie on joint ballot, and the fight over the election of Senator Blackburn's successor will now prove all the more interesting.

An Earnest Worker.

The Lexington Leader's Washington correspondence says: "Hon Samuel J. Pugh, of the Ninth District, is like his colleagues an earnest worker in behalf of his constituents and since his election has given his best efforts to the advancement of the rights and interests of his people. The entire Kentucky delegation compares favorably with that from any other State, and Kentucky may well be proud of her favored sons."

A Hungry Set.

Lexington Argonaut: "There are enough petitions in Frankfort to-day to carpet that city from center to circumference and behind every petition can be seen the broad, cavernous, copious mouth of some anxious pie-hunting Republican, ominous in its solemnity, appalling in its size and awful in its anxiety. Governor-elect Bradley has been so hotly besieged by the anxious ones, that he has been forced to flee from the city and take refuge in his own home at Lancaster, where he now lies with his brow swathed in camphire and linen rags."

Kentucky's Slanderers.

Carlisle Mercury: "Kentucky is a hundred years behind the Northern States," is a lie that has been told so often for political effect that some people have been made believe it. Kentucky is not behind other States in anything that she wishes to be up with. Talk about happiness and wealth and we have more of it than is desirable than any Northern State. If any Kentuckian believes that other States are more desirable than Kentucky let him move out and then see how quick he wants to move back. We shall see what those who have made it their business for thirty years to slander Kentucky will do, now that they are in power."

Who does not know women and young girls who are continually in tears? Who always see the dark side? Who have frequent fits of melancholy without any apparent cause? The intelligent physician will know that it is some derangement of the complicated and delicate feminine organs. The young girl suffers, bodily and mentally, in silence. There is undue weariness, unexpected pain, unreasonable tears and fits of temper. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription exerts a wonderful power over woman's delicate organism. It is an invigorating tonic and is specific for the peculiar weaknesses, irregularities and painful derangements of woman. Careless, easy-going doctors frequently treat their women patients for biliousness, nervousness, dyspepsia, liver or kidney troubles, when the real sickness is in the organs distinctly feminine, and no help can come till they are made perfectly strong by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Since his appointment to the speakership Mr. Gully has not tasted any intoxicating liquors.

Lord Palmerston ascribed his youthfulness to the fact that he never took any work to bed with him.

Ex State Treasurer Vincent of Alabama is now working as a journeyman painter in a Mississippi village.

During a recent lecture Justin McCarthy described himself as old fashioned enough to still admire Dickens and Thackeray in preference to the modern novel.

Judge Cassett of Lancaster, N. H., believes he is the only person living that ever shook hands with Lafayette. He was introduced to the latter during his last visit to this country.

Colonel Bradley, the Republican who has been elected governor of Kentucky, is of rather imposing personal presence, has a full and carrying voice and is plainly a man of personal force.

Major Davis of Kansas City, having neglected to pay the tax on his house for last year, discovered, to his surprise, the other day that the property had just been sold to satisfy the claim.

The new minister of foreign affairs in France is known by Renan's bitter gibes at his restlessness for office, which took the form of this epitaph: "Here lies Berthelot, in the only place that he never coveted."

President Faure of France is a very carefully dressed man, and, it is said, spends a large sum annually at his tailor's. He is somewhat fussy about his clothes, but there are those of the ancient regime who assert that he does not know how to dress becomingly.

Hannibal Andrews is Maine's latest hero. He is the veteran brickmason of Milton plantation, 71 years of age, who, crippled with rheumatism, had the neighbors hoist him with ropes to the roof of North Woodstock's new schoolhouse and laid the last brick on top of the chimney.

Lord Beaconsfield's brother still survives, a kindly old gentleman, who was for many years clerk in the house of lords. After retiring from his clerkship Ralph Disraeli was for a time in constant attendance in the lobby of the house of commons. He bears no resemblance to his more eminent brother.

HOUSTON, Dec. 9.—W. K. Wheelock yesterday saw Martin Julian, manager of Robert Fitzsimmons, and tried to induce him to sign articles for the meeting with Peter Maher. Julian positively refused to sign, objecting to the date, Feb. 14, and to the size of the purse hung up, wanting $20,000.

The A. P. A.'s Knocked Out at Springfield.

BOSTON MASS., Dec. 3.—New city governments were chosen in nineteen of the thirty-one cities of the Commonwealth to-day, and in three-quarters of them there was practically no enthusiasm whatever. In many places party lines were not drawn, and in Springfield, Somerville, Gloucester, Brockton and other cities, the battle was fought on the A. P. A. issue. The contest in Springfield was one of the warmest in the history of the city, and resulted in the overthrow of the candidates indorsed by the A. P. A.

HORACE MIDDLETON died near Shelbyville October 14th. Last week there was a decided sensation when it leaked out that his widow and Dr. Charles W. Taylor, a physician of Shelbyville, were married November 25th at St. Louis. Middleton died from the effects of an operation performed on him to remove from his stomach fifteen inches of a pump which had broken off while being used to extract an overdose of morphine he had taken with suicidal intent.

REV. C. S. LUCAS will deliver two very interesting and entertaining lectures at the Christian Church this city, December 17th and 18th, under auspices of the Y. P. S. C. E. Subjects, "A Pony Ride Through Palestine," and "Curious Things I Saw in Europe." He made a tour of the Holy Land and of Europe last summer, and in these lectures tells of his trip. Mr. Lucas was formerly pastor of the church here, and the people of Maysville will be glad of the opportunity of hearing him, as he is always an interesting and entertaining speaker. The admission will be very low, so all may attend.

AN interesting and important decision was rendered Saturday at Louisville, in which it is held that the Central Kentucky Lunatic Asylum at Lakeland, can not hide behind the State, although it is a State institution. Valentine Hauns sued the asylum for $10,000 damages because the defendant had built two dams across Goose Creek, making two lakes and cutting off the flow of water on plaintiff's land. He also alleges that slopes from the asylum are dumped on his ground and that from this cause his wife had been made ill and died. The demur was to the effect that the asylum, being an arm of the State, could not be sued. It was held that this and all other Kentucky asylums are delegated certain corporate privileges, and can be sued by the citizens.

IN MEMORIAM.

In remembrance of Nettie Moran, who died Tuesday evening, November 26th, at her cousin's Mrs. Mastin, of typhoid fever, at Kennard, Ky. She was a kind and loving sister, and one who was blessed with many friends who will mourn her loss. But as it is our loss, it is Heaven's gain. A few moments before she passed from earth to Heaven she clasped her hands and said, "Jesus has spoken peace to my soul." She can not come back to us, but we have the blessed assurance we can go to her.

And our loss we deeply feel.

But 'tis God who hast bereft us,

He can all our sorrows heal.

Maysville, Ky. B. L. W.

STOLE A MARCH ON THEIR FRIENDS.

Marriage of Miss Maggie Green, formerly of Maysville, to Charles Cullen at Louisville.

[Courier-Journal.]

And they stole a march on their friends, so that the following little announcement will take them all by surprise, and show that Cupid does not let the good work slacken, no matter how cold it may be. Yesterday afternoon Father Cunningham, the popular priest in charge of the church at Thirty-second and Broadway, was called upon at his house by Miss Maggie Green and Mr. Charles Cullen, who had come there to be married. Father Cunningham speedily performed the ceremony, and the young couple went to the Victoria Hotel, where they are ready to see their friends. No one had the slightest inkling of the affair, and it will be a surprise. Miss Green is the daughter of Mr. Green, proprietor of the Fourth Avenue Hotel, and is quite a beauty and belle. Mr. Cullen is also a favorite in business and social circles, and occupies a position in the National Tobacco Works on Broadway.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. Henry Green, formerly conductor on the Kentucky Central. She has many warm friends in Maysville.

TWO YEARS.

That's What Henrietta McDaniel Gets For Drawing Her Mother's Pension.

The severity of the United States laws against pension frauds was illustrated by a sentence imposed on a woman by Judge Barr, in Covington, Friday, says the Enquirer.

Henrietta McDaniel, of Maysville, was sentenced to two years in the Jeffersonville penitentiary for drawing a widow's pension, which was originally granted to her mother. The prisoner's father served all through the war, and was discharged utterly disabled by wounds. He died soon after he left the army, and his widow was granted a pension of $30 per month. The widow died a few years ago, and since that time the daughter had been drawing the pension.

The woman has already served one term, having been sentenced to two years for shooting a circus man who tried to force an entrance into her home at Maysville.

They Were Married in Maysville.

The Commercial Gazette says: "A suit was filed for divorce Saturday which brings to public notice for the first time an estrangement between a young couple whose pathway in life seemed to have been cleared from all the ordinary obstacles to happiness in the wedded state, when they pledged themselves at the altar. The plaintiff is Florence Swing Cabell, the accomplished daughter of Judge Peter F. Swing, of the Circuit Court. The defendant is Joseph Hartwell Cabell, one of the brightest young lawyers of the Hamilton County bar. They were married in September, 1892, at Maysville, Ky., but the union has not been a happy one from the beginning. She sues on the ground of gross neglect of duty for three years.

Not "Uncle Tom."

Harriet Beecher Stowe has written a letter to Lexington parties in which she says: "The man you speak of, George Lewis Clark, who is going about representing himself to be the original George in 'Uncle Tom's Cabin,' does so at his own presumption. I never saw the man, and don't remember ever having even heard of him, although I have before received letters telling of various individuals who were going about the country representing themselves to be the originals of Uncle Tom, or George Harris, as the case might be. Neither he nor any other man stood for the character of George Harris, who was a creature of my own brain—a probable but not living character."

WILLIAM SMITH, one of Maysville's best colored citizens, died this morning at 1:30 o'clock at his home in the Fifth ward, after a lingering illness, of consumption. He was thirty-one years old, and leaves a wife and one child. The funeral will occur Wednesday afternoon at the Bethel Baptist Church.

THE C. and O. has taken into Cincinnati during the past two months an average of 500 cars of coal per day. Assistant General Passenger Agent Ryan was enthusiastic in communicating this interesting information regarding the carrying capacity of his road, which fully demonstrates the fact that a coal famine can be easily averted.

A SPECIAL from West Union says: "Some rich mineral deposits have been discovered on the lands belonging to Hon. Robert Cochran, in Green Township. The deposits give every promise of yielding lead and silver ore in paying quantities. Samples of the ore submitted to a Cincinnati chemist showed the presence of silver and lead in high percentages."

JUDGE WALL left Sunday for Washington City to look after some legal business. One of the Judge's hobbies is a public building for Maysville, and while in Washington he will confer with Congressman Pugh and other Kentucky Representatives and try to interest them in the matter. The Judge thinks Maysville is more entitled to a Government building than many of the cities that have been favored in this way, and he is right.

CHARLES TATMAN, a C. and O. brakeman, was probably fatally injured Saturday afternoon, on an eastbound train at Foster. Tatman was in the cab of the engine, when the arch pipe of the boiler burst. The full force of the stream of boiling water struck Tatman on the body, terribly scalding him from the chest to the knees. Fireman C. K. James, who was on the other side of the cab, was also scalded, but not seriously. Tatman, unconscious, was taken back to Covington on the first train and removed to his home, where Dr. Kearns attended him.

FIXING TO BREAK JAIL.

Several of the Prisoners Were in the Plot—Digging Through the Stone Floor.

Had it not been for a quiet tip received by Jailer Johnson several of the prisoners would probably have gained their liberty yesterday or last night.

Peter Clark and Wm. Reaks, in for stealing a lot of hides from Wood Bros., Wm. Sons, the chicken thief, and Walter Skinner and Shelby Setters, indicted for having burglars' tools in their possession, were in the plot.

The plan was to cut out one of the iron gratings in the stone floor, and escape by way of the cellar. A half hour's more work and they would have had the grating removed.

A search of the prisoners and their cells brought to light several tools, and a heavy steel or iron bar over three feet in length. Just where they got these is a mystery, but the supposition is the tools were sneaked in by some of the friends of the parties.

BALLINGER's jewelry store is a most interesting place to one who cares for rich and beautiful things. It's prolific of suggestions as to gifts; full of useful and pretty ornaments and of useful things for home and table.

AT Portsmouth, Moses Rice, who claimed to represent a Cincinnati cigar house, is wanted. He is charged with jumping a big board bill at the Elk Hotel, and, it is alleged, got Isaac Levi, a wholesale liquor merchant of that city, to cash a draft for $400, which was returned as worthless.

THE Washington correspondent of the Louisville Post says: "Representative Pugh has two things upon which he has set his heart. The first is to secure a Federal Court at Ashland. The citizens will furnish the court house if the Government will order the court held therein. He also wants the mouth of the Big Sandy River improved, and shall ask for an appropriation at once."

THE Carlisle creamery is one that appears to be a success. The Mercury says: "Our creamery has during the year 1895 received 450,680 pounds of milk, and made 21,212 pounds of butter, which has been sold at an average of 21¢ cents. The average price paid for milk was 77 cents per hundred. Total receipts for the year, $4,715.40. The outlook for the coming year for this institution is very good—even better than the past year, as several farmers have signified their intention to increase their supply of milk."

WHILE the administrators were looking over the effects of the late Rev. Charles W. Garoutte, of Ripley, they found a document which, if reliable, will make his family one of unlimited wealth. It stated that his grandfather was a Frenchman of great wealth and resided in the neighborhood of Marseilles, France, and owned the ground upon which that city now stands. Troubles arose which forced him to fly to this country, locating near Philadelphia. When he died he turned over to a Masonic Lodge a box which is said to contain documents and records that are the key to the possessions. Captain Garoutte, of Lynchburg, O., a brother of the late minister, is making preparations to go to Philadelphia, where he will get possession of the box, and from there proceed to France.

IN THE FACE OF DEATH

Murderer Hayward Invokes a Terrible Curse on His Brother.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 9.—"May the curse of God fall on you and yours, and allow me, from the minute I drop from the scaffold, to haunt you day and night until your death. Then I will welcome you on the brink of hell with a red hot poker."

These are the farewell words of Harry Hayward to his brother Adry yesterday afternoon. He hurled them at the latter as he descended the stairs leading to the tier in which the prisoner was confined, and passed through the iron doorway to the outer office.

It was their last meeting on earth and such the murderer intended it to be. Adry was as calm as the prisoner was impassioned. He was unmoved by the anathemas except toward pity. His was the brotherly affection and he interrupted with the fervent "God bless you, Harry, Goodby Harry," which elicited the remarks quoted above.

The meeting between the brothers was arranged by the parents who beseeched the condemned man to see Adry once more before he died.

Harry is to be executed Wednesday for the murder of Catherine Ging. When he heard Saturday that the governor had signed his death warrant, he exclaimed: "That's a long time to wait for a railroad train."
